

ETI KAC:

Good afternoon everyone, and in our language- shalom, thank you for coming.

I am here, with my daughter, on behalf of my Mom to express our deep gratitude for the efforts all of you did and do for bringing the story of my mom to the public.

My mom Relly Pardo wrote this book as an historical record of The Alfandri family, for her children and grandchildren.

The book layed on the shelf until wonderful grope of people gave him life -

Dear Mrs.Miriana my mother's cousin, Mr.Arbutina, Mrs. Radmila Suljagic, Mr.Simitz, Prop. Rot, Mrs Vladisiav Gourdich Petkovich, Mrs Mirjana Brkovich, Mr Bojan Popovich

Thank you for all the efforts you have done, it's very important to as that people will read this book, and make secure that something like that will not happen again.

The book is also telling the sad story of the jewish Community in Belgrade, that has been destroyed during the holocaust. And it is very moving for me to be here - the place that used to be a synagogue.

My mom arrived to Israel right after the country become independent in 1949 as a young women. She crated with my father the Alfandari Pardo family. My mom today is 86 years old. She is clear, sharp and young in her spirit. She suffers from physical disabilities but enjoys from her 2 children and 5 grandchildren, one of whom my daughter here with me and 2 great granddaughters.

The Alfandari family keeps living in our hearts.

Thank you everyone, on behalf of my family.
